PricewaterhouseCoopers has a strategic business focus on diversity.

With more than 130,000 partners and staff in 148 countries, PwC is the largest global network of professional services firms—offering a wide range of Assurance, Tax, and Advisory services to many of the world's largest and most prestigious companies. To achieve our business goals, we have a number of initiatives and programs that support our strategy to hire, retain and advance the best talent.

At PricewaterhouseCoopers we believe that diversifying our staff, our partnership and our leadership is critical to the continued success of our Firm. We view diversity and inclusion as business imperatives that will help us sustain our leading position in the market and exceed our client's expectations. Since 1990, we have awarded scholarships to some of the best and brightest African American, Hispanic/Latino and Native American students in the U.S. Our program includes:

- A $3,000 monetary award
- Participation in our annual Diversity in Business Leadership Conference
- A PricewaterhouseCoopers internship

Who is qualified?

To qualify, you must be a Freshman or Sophomore with strong academic standing (3.2 or higher) and an academic and career interest in Accounting, Management Information Systems and/or Computer Science.

The application process runs from September 2006 through December 2006. The scholarship winners will be announced in April 2007.

Application process

- Visit www.pwc.com/exceed to apply
- You will need to provide the following information to complete the application:
 1. Resume including current GPA (high school or college)
 2. Personal Information Sheet

3. Personal Essay: The PricewaterhouseCoopers core values are Leadership, Excellence and Teamwork. Your essay should describe how you have demonstrated one or all of these values in your academic and/or professional career and why you believe these values are important. In addition, briefly outline your career goals in the area of accounting, business or IT.
4. A letter of recommendation from a college/high school professor, official or advisor

- We ask that you also complete our Online Career Profile at www.pwc.com/ocp. In the drop down field on the OCP, when asked "if applying through a special program," indicate the program name, "PwC eXceed".
- Based on your initial application finalists will be interviewed in person by a PricewaterhouseCoopers partner, manager or recruiter. As part of the interview process you will need to provide an official college/university and/or high school transcript.

Here is what some recent scholars had to say about the program

"I had a wonderful time and I wouldn't trade in my experience for anything in the world. I also wanted to say thank you for giving me the opportunity to participate in such a prestigious event and I am truly grateful for the recognition I received."
