

The Department of Economics at UC Santa Barbara is one of the largest majors within the College of Letters and Science, and is comprised of two majors:

Economics, Economics & Accounting

Each year our department graduates approximately 600 students, and we attempt to gather employment data. The following data was gathered via student survey and LinkedIn.

86%

reported full-time employment or pursuing higher education after graduation*

64%

received full time job offers upon graduating. Students were hired in:
Accounting, Data Analytics,
Education, Financial Services,
Marketing and Sales

22%

are pursuing an advanced degree in HIGHER EDUCATION including: Law School, Masters in Accountancy, Economics or Finance

For additional information about our program, and the career opportunities it offers, please visit the Career Connection office, North Hall 2119 or call 805.893.2824.

Here are just a few of the companies who have hired UCSB graduates: Appfolio, Apple, Barclays, BDO, Charles Schwab, Deckers, Deloitte, EY, Jeffries, JP Morgan, KPMG, Moss Adams, Northwestern Mutual, Northrop Grumann, PwC, UBS, Union Bank, US Capitol Partners, Wells Fargo, Yardi Systems

 Data is current as of December 2015.