<td>• Visit Econ Career Connection to discuss opportunities and have your resume reviewed</td>
<td>• Your internship does not have to be in finance but something finance-related could lead to smoother transition</td>
<td>• Decide what internships you might be interested in and map out their timelines</td>
<td>• At this point, someone might call you out of the blue and ask to phone interview you in 15 minutes – be prepared!</td>
<td>Congratulations!</td>
<td>• Work hard, arrive early and stay late, ask questions, show your enthusiasm</td>
<td>• If you received and accepted a full-time offer, then congratulations and keep in contact with your team (quarterly)</td>

<tr>
<td>• Utilize resources from UCSB Career Services such as Vault Banking &amp; Finance Guides</td>
<td>• Give 100% to your internship, Build strong references and relationships</td>
<td>• Cold call, email, attend events and expand your network</td>
<td>• Dedicate significant time outside of class to preparing</td>
<td>• Enjoy the rest of junior year and be sure to keep in touch with anyone who helped you during the process</td>
<td>• Get to know your fellow interns, the people on your team and in your department</td>
<td>• If not, do not despair! You can use this year to reflect on your experiences and to network for a better seat</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Start researching firms and career paths you may be interested in</td>
<td>• Recognize that the most difficult part of the process is landing the interview so this phase is crucial</td>
<td>• For IB, you will likely have a phone screen, then be called in for a Super-Day with very short notice</td>
<td></td>
<td>• Use this opportunity to develop professional relationships and find a mentor</td>
<td>• Full-time offers are extended at the end of the program</td>
<td>• Remember that your first job does not determine the rest of your career – the path to success is not linear!</td>
