

UCSB Economics PhD Program Application Checklist

Complete and submit the online application at: <https://www.graddiv.ucsb.edu/eapp/>

Pay non-refundable application fee

➤ Domestic: $120.00

➤ International: $140.00

As part of the online application, provide the following:

Statement of Purpose Essay*

Personal Achievements/Contributions Essay*

Resume or CV

Official transcripts from all post-secondary institutions attended

Three to four letters of recommendation

International applicants only: Official TOEFL or IELTS scores (no older than two years) forwarded directly from the testing institution.

GRE test scores are not required nor accepted for Fall 2021 applications.

For more information on how to apply, please visit the "How to Apply" section of the Graduate Division website: <http://www.graddiv.ucsb.edu/admissions/how-to-apply>

* Don't combine the "Statement of Purpose" and "Personal Achievements" essays. Each essay should be between 2-2 ½ pages long, single-spaced. Label each essay with the applicant's name (Last, First) and the title of the essay.

 International applicants must include transcripts in both their original language along with certified English translations by the school or an official agency.

*International applicants should also upload a document showing the detail of their academic background, especially in the areas of Mathematics and Economic Theory.